

TED E. NONINI

Ted Nonini led a distinguished 31 year career with the Los Angeles Fire Department (LAFD) serving in a variety of complex and demanding firefighting positions in many of the busiest districts of the City, retiring from the fire service in 2015. An advocate for front line public safety servants, Ted spent 14 years as an elected official with United Firefighters of Los Angeles City Local 112 serving as a Director, member of the Negotiating Team and, later, Treasurer. A native son of Los Angeles, Nonini grew up attending schools in the Los Angeles Unified School District and received two degrees from the University of Southern California. An avid golfer, Ted lives in Santa Clarita, California.
